Dear Mr Flynn,

Thank you for your e-mail of 11 November 2016.

The Council named you as an interested party in order to comply with the Civil Procedure Rules.

This does not require you to participate in the proceedings at all. Whether or not you choose to actively participate in the proceedings is a matter for you.

Costs and the conduct of the court proceedings are matters on which you should seek your own advice.

The Council is not in a position to give the commitment that you seek in the event that you actively participate in the proceedings.

Kind Regards,

Ms Sadia Hussain| Senior Planning Lawyer

Subject: Aylesbury estate CPO Inquiry/Judicial Review Claim - CO/5462/2016

Dear Ms Forrester,

I am writing in response to the Acknowledgement of Service you have sent to me as an interested party on behalf of the 35% Campaign in the above claim filed on 27/10/2016.

Having participated and made representations to the CPO inquiry and having been listed by yourselves as interested parties in the case, we would like to take up the opportunity to continue participating in the appeal proceedings relating to the case.

However, we are writing first to seek assurances from the Council that in the unlikely event that the Council's appeal is successful, that it will not seek to recover costs from us as an interested party.

We believe it would be beneficial for all interested parties to be able to participate in the proceedings without fear of costs awards. This will ensure maximum participation and ensure that all voices are given a chance to be heard.

We look forward to hearing from you and, given the approaching deadline for submitting the Acknowledgement of Service, we would ask that you respond to this request by next Wednesday 15th November at the very latest.

Yours sincerely,

Jerry Flynn
